Cube Cross Hybrid ONE 500 Allroad iridium ´n´blue 2019

One bike, many reasons: the Cross Hybrid ONE Allroad is the Bosch e-bike that'll slot right into your life. Fully equipped with mudguards, an AXA and Busch & Müller lighting system that runs off the Bosch battery and a kickstand, it's ready to go. Schwalbe's Smart Sam tyres have the grip to cope with pretty much any surface, while the Suntour suspension fork smooths out the rough edges and the powerful Shimano MT200 hydraulic disc brakes serve up plenty of all-weather stopping power. The reliable and powerful Bosch drive unit and integrated battery are stars of the show, of course, feeding both your and the motor's power to the rear wheel via Shimano's slick gears. And, with a trapeze frame option and a wide range of sizes, we've got every rider covered. From city street to country lane, it's the ideal companion.

So neatly integrated is Bosch's motor and battery, many people won't even realise you're riding an e-bike. The clean looks are the result of our engineering team's long experience of working with - and designing around - the superb Bosch system. We've incorporated features like double butted aluminium superlite tubes and a tapered head tube, for extra strength without extra weight. The fully integrated battery and motor are protected from the elements, and you don't even need to remove the battery from the frame in order to charge it. We've kept the Cross Hybrid ONE Allroad's centre of gravity deliberately low to provide easy, reassuring handling. Like all our bikes, this one has passed our rigorous in-house testing. We don't just check that it meets compulsory safety standards - we go further than that, to ensure that it has the strength and durability to provide many years of trouble-free service.
